How we keep your information safe and secure

All personal information we hold about you in written form will be stored securely.

All personal electronic information we hold is stored on our IT systems on servers in the UK and within the EU. You can read about the security of these servers and how they comply to the relevant legislation here. <https://aws.amazon.com/compliance/eu-data-protection/>

Access to our information is strictly controlled. We may disclose your details to Police, regulatory bodies or legal advisors if so required.

Disclosure of your information

We do not share your information with any third party without your agreement unless we are under a duty to disclose or share your personal data to comply with any legal obligation, or in order to enforce or apply our terms of use or terms and conditions of purchase or supply or services.

We never sell personal information to third parties.

What is the legal basis for processing the information?

The legal basis for collecting and processing your data is as follows: -

- Consent – you may have given us your consent to use your data for example when you tick a box to receive marketing emails, offers and newsletters. You can withdraw your consent at any time.
- Contractual obligation – to enter a contract with us we need your personal information to process and fulfil the contract, for example being a keyholder to your property and providing services to your pets.
- Legal obligation – if required by law to process personal information for example to comply with Health & Safety obligations or to provide information to the Police or Local Authority to prevent fraud or criminal activity.
- Legitimate interest – for a genuine business reason that does not override your right, freedom or interests, for example administrative purposes.

Your Rights

You have the right at any time to ask for a copy of the information we hold about you and confirmation of how it is being processed. You will be required to verify your identity when making such a request. If you would like to make a request please email bourne@petpals.com or send a request in writing to 12 Talbot Drive, Wallisdown, Poole, BH12 5ED.

Your rights also include the following: -

- Request that we correct inaccuracies to your information or complete your information if incomplete. You must notify us of any updates, amendments or corrections to previously collected information via the online systems we use or via email to bourne-mouth@petpals.com. We require you to keep the personal information we hold on you up to date and accurate.
- Request that we delete some or all of your personal information, for example if it is no longer necessary for us to hold it for the purpose it was provided and we have no legal basis to retain it, i.e. we provided services for your pet(s) and you have now moved out of our area.
- Request that we stop or limit the processing of your information where you think it is inaccurate (until the accuracy is proved or updated); if you have objected to the processing (when it was necessary for legitimate interests); if you have consented to the use of it; or if it is no longer necessary for us to hold it for the purpose it was provided and we have no legal basis to retain it.

How long do we keep your information?

Your personal information will be retained for no longer than is necessary to fulfil the purpose for which we collected it or to satisfy any legal or reporting obligation or to resolve a dispute or enforce an agreement.

When we no longer require your personal information, we will dispose of it in line with approved company processes. If personal data is retained for legal or reporting obligations it will be archived and reduced to the minimum information required, for example we will be legally required by the Local Authority to retain Doggy Boarding information for three years.

Withdrawing consent

If you have provided us with your consent to process your personal information you have the right to withdraw this at any time. In order to do so, you should contact us by emailing bourne-mouth@petpals.com.
